

Myka T Johnson is a community organizer and radical abolitionist from Charlotte, N.C.

She is one of the core organizers of Charlotte Uprising. In that capacity, she has facilitated political education forums, trained direct action, and she has helped inform our communities on what it means to keep each other safe.

She has implemented multiple community-based efforts to improve the justice/court system and training on Trans 101, Abolition and Immigration, Alternatives to Police, Court Support, and Jail Support.

Myka's interests include mindfulness, prison abolition, and gender justice