

Brooke Adams, Assist Dir, Charlotte Reproductive Action Network

Brooke Adams is a retired attorney with a passionate drive to advance women's rights and reproductive freedom. Brooke has served as the President of Charlotte's Reproductive Rights Coalition for the past three years and is the Assistant Director of the Charlotte Reproductive Action Network. Brooke also serves on the Mecklenburg County Women's Advisory Board, acts as an advisor to the Charlotte Women's Movement on reproductive policy issues and volunteers as a clinic escort.

Adams has a JD from the University of Chicago and a BA from Carleton College, with a major in religion. She lives in Charlotte with her husband, two daughters and more pets than any sensible person would have.

WUM Co-Sponsors

